Develop Questioning Skills with the QUESTION BANK

The Question Bank is a great resource and versatile tool.

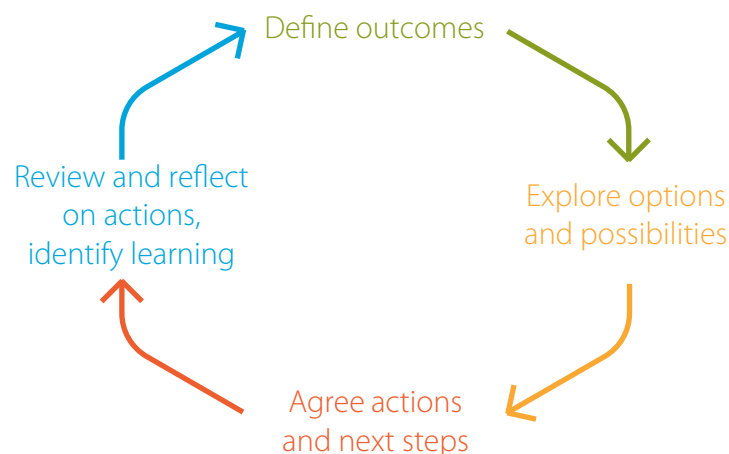

The Question Bank is designed for trainers, managers, coaches and facilitators to use with teams, in training courses, to support coaching skills development and in Action Learning. In fact for anyone involved in encouraging and developing questioning and problem solving skills wanting to encourage a coach approach to helping others develop new perspectives.

These simple to use coaching style questions are colour coded for easy recognition.

- Green Outcomes questions help define the topic and desired outcome
- Orange Exploration questions are designed to help generate new thinking and insight
- Red Action questions which help define clear next steps
- Blue Review questions to encourage reflection and help identify learning

You can use these in a variety of situations to :

- Provoke discussion and ideas
- Encourage insightful questions
- Develop questioning skills
- Structure a conversation
